

21. Adjectives

Adjectives tell you something about nouns.

He's a writer.

He's a brilliant writer.

She's an actress.

She's a beautiful actress.

Adjectives tell you something about nouns.

The coffee is hot.

The tea is cold.

The car is fast.

The train is slow.

The expensive grapes.

The cheap apples.

The stupid rules.

The wise detectives.

This is how you use adjectives.

A rich society or a poor family.

A white bird or a black snake.

A happy moment or a sad song.

A serious problem or a funny clown.

Adjectives tell you something about a noun.