

22. Adverbs

Hello again.

I am the magician.

May I have your attention.

Ladies and gentlemen.

I will now change adjectives into adverbs.

Silence, please.

Beautiful.

Beautifully.

Slow.

Slowly.

Stupid.

Stupidly.

Wise.

Wisely.

O.k, I'll tell you my secret.

It's very simple.

When I want to form an adverb,

I just add -ly to the adjective.

Unless the adjective already ends in -ly,
like friendly, lonely, lovely and silly.

Plus all the other exceptions,

but they are for coming lessons.
